

GALE “Par Lady” JAMES MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

“The Gale James Memorial Scholarship” is established in memory of D. Gale James, a professional golf instructor until her death April 2015. The scholarship will award $500 to a student golfer(s) who is in an organized golf program and or interested in furthering his or her golf skills and education.

Our Mission is to support Golf programs that are underfunded in our school system. Our commitment is to provide financial assistance and give equitable consideration based on academic performance, financial need, school and community activities. The award may be used to support academic needs, tournament fees, travel, equipment and golf accessories.

Applicants may be eligible for further funds by maintaining or exceeding the 2.6 grade point average and by re-applying during the next scholarship application period. Awards are renewable subject to re-application.

Eligible students must meet the following requirements:
